

14th ANNUAL FALL DERMATOLOGY CONFERENCE

CAESARS PALACE - LAS VEGAS, NV

PRE-CONFERENCE DAY - NOVEMBER 2, 2016
GENERAL CONFERENCE - NOVEMBER 3-6, 2016

PRE-CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Fundamentals of Dermatologic Surgery: A Progressive Approach from Basic to Advanced Skills

SDPA is pleased to announce the Pre-Conference Fundamentals Dermatologic Surgery program to be held Wednesday November 2nd, the day preceding the 14th Annual Fall Dermatology Conference.

This pre-conference program is approved for 9.0 Cat I CME Credit from AAPA.

The cost to attend this program is $99.00.

"Fundamentals of Dermatologic Surgery: A Progressive Approach from Basic to Advanced Skills," is an exclusive 9-hour training course designed to advance and refine the surgical skill set of dermatology practitioners. Held the day prior to the SDPA Fall Dermatology Conference, this course is designed to teach both the novice and intermediate level clinician the required surgical skills to advance their career in cutaneous surgery. It will include the following: review of surgical anatomy; selection and use of anesthetics and injection pearls; cutaneous surgical procedures that will start with primary skills and quickly transition to include advanced scar prevention and formation; advanced suturing techniques; management of surgical complications; and post-operative wound care management essential for all surgical practitioners.

Please Note: This course is lecture based and not a hands on course. For those wishing to add the hands on skill practice please consider signing up for one of our Surgical Workshops which are offered during the regular conference program.
